Our Ports of Call

Aruba: Aruba is famed for its stunning palm-fringed beaches and crystal-clear waters. This idyllic island offers perfect conditions for swimming, snorkeling, and sunbathing, making it a top destination for beach lovers. Discover the intriguing "Antilla" shipwreck, the largest in the Caribbean, now a haven for diverse sea life and a popular spot for diving enthusiasts.

Panama Canal Historic Locks: Cruising through the Panama Canal will be one of the unforgettable experiences of our voyage. It takes approximately eight hours to navigate the 50-mile waterway linking the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans, allowing you to experience firsthand one of the engineering marvels of the 20th century

Fuerte Amador, Panama: Located at the gateway to the Pacific side of the Panama Canal, Fuerte Amador offers convenient access to bustling Panama City. This charming causeway is lined with delightful shops, inviting restaurants, and specialty stores, all set against the backdrop of stunning city views. Don't miss the chance to marvel up close and personal at the engineering marvel of the canal's expansion from a unique vantage point.

Puntarenas, Costa Rica: Costa Rica occupies a unique position, lying between two oceans and two continents. On both coasts, tropical rainforests rise to the mountains of the interior, many of which soar over 13,000 feet above sea level. In the west, a seemingly endless succession of brown-sand beaches forms the nation's Pacific coast. Puntarenas is your gateway to Costa Rica's wonders - and to its capital city of San Jose.

Puerto Chiapas, Mexico: Known for its warm climate, it serves as a gateway to Mayan ruins, coffee/cacao plantations, and lush, bio-diverse coastal mangroves.

Huatulco, Mexico: Huatulco is a tropical Eden with crystalline waters, coral reefs, and uncrowded beaches. Inland, the rugged coast range is thickly carpeted with rainforest and coffee plantations. Large areas of Huatulco have been designated as an ecological reserve. Huatulco is located in the state of Oaxaca where the foothills of the Sierra Madre del Sur Mountains meet the Pacific Ocean.

Ensenada, Mexico: This port city offers a unique blend of Mexican charm and maritime adventures, making it a popular destination for travelers looking for both relaxation and excitement. Ensenada is considered one of the best sportfishing ports anywhere along the Pacific.
